LESSON OF THE UNEXPECTED***
“WHY DID THE CHARACTER ACT (FEEL) THAT WAY?”

The character acts in a way that contradicts how he or she has acted before or that contrasts with how we would act or that reveals a difference among characters.

Look for ways a character acts that:

- ... are contradictory (opposite or different) to how the character has acted in the past.
- ... contrast with how you would act in that situation.
- ... reveal a difference among characters (a way that this character is different from another).

Ask: “Why did the character act (or feel) that way?”

What character action or feeling was unexpected?	Pg #	What was unexpected about the action/feeling?	Why do you think the character acted/felt that way?

AHA MOMENT
“WHY MIGHT THIS REALIZATION BE IMPORTANT?”

A character’s insight or sudden understanding reveals something important about the character or the plot.

Look for the moment when the writer seems to interrupt the action, or perhaps puts a character off alone to think, and some realization occurs to him or her.

- ... I suddenly realized that. . . .
- ... At that moment, I finally understood. . . .

Ask: “Why might this realization be important?”

What words told you this was going to be an Aha Moment?	Pg #	What realization came to the character’s mind?	How is this realization likely to be important in the story?

TOUGH QUESTIONS

“WHAT DOES THIS TOUGH QUESTION MAKE ME WONDER ABOUT?”

A time when the main character asks him- or herself, or someone else, a tough question, one that doesn't have an easy answer.

Look for the moment when a character is confused or uncertain and either asks himself (or someone else might ask him) a very hard question that will shape his life or tells us that he is wondering about something important.

You might see a character saying to herself something like:

- ... I couldn't imagine what I ought to do about. . . .
- ... I realized that I was finally going to have to figure out. . . .
- ... I just didn't know which choice to make.
- ... How could I possibly decide between. . . .

Or a friend might say or ask:

- ... No matter how tough it will be, you'll have to choose between. . . .
- ... Before you do anything you're going to have to ask yourself. . . .

Ask: “What does this tough question make me wonder about?”

How did you know this was going to be a Tough Question?	Pg #	What did you wonder about when you thought about the question?	How is this question important to the story and how do you think the character will answer it? (Or, How will his or her answer affect the events in the story that follow?)

WORDS OF THE WISER
“HOW COULD THIS ADVICE AFFECT THE CHARACTER?”

A wiser, often older, character shares his or her experience, wisdom, or lesson about life with the protagonist, hoping to guide him or her through a difficult decision.

Look for a scene in which a wiser character offers the main character advice that is helpful at this moment in the story, but could also be helpful throughout life.

Ask: “How could this advice affect the character?”

What did you see that told you this was going to be a Words-of-the-Wiser moment?	Pg #	What advice or insight did the wiser character share?	How do you think this will affect the main character (or the one who received the advice)?

AGAIN AND AGAIN
“WHY MIGHT THE AUTHOR BRING THIS UP AGAIN AND AGAIN?”

A word, phrase, or idea is repeated, making us wonder about its significance.

Look for anything that keeps happening again and again.

You might see:

- ... a single word that is repeated more often than you would expect, as if the writer is calling special attention to it
- ... a situation that a character finds him- or herself in over and over
- ... an idea that keeps coming up

Ask: “Why might the author bring this up again and again?”

MEMORY MOMENT
“WHY MIGHT THIS MEMORY BE IMPORTANT?”

A memory interrupts the flow of the story, but reveals something important about the character or the plot.

Look for times when:

- ... the character suddenly starts remembering something, even right in the middle of some important event
- ... a quiet moment when the character thinks back on something from his or her past

Ask: “Why might this memory be important?”

What was happening when the character recalled the memory?	Pg #	What memory came to the character’s mind?	Why do you think this memory is important to the character or to the story?
